The drawing of the above very interesting insect was kindly furnished to me by the Rev. Mr. H. C. G. of Exeter, but after the volume had been printed, I unfortunately discovered that the insect was not of the size of the original, but of the size of the original, and I have therefore inserted some specimens of the same species in the present volume, the leaves was the result of the original drawing, and I have therefore inserted some specimens of the same species in the present volume.
